Thank you, St. Louis KCers Zack and Rayson for helping to clean the grills on the hectic Friday set-up day!

Thank you, Dine-in buffet line servers!

Erix is a'ready to dodge raindrops...

Thank you, Lei Cooper!

Thank you, Mark Yamada, Michelle, and Grant!

Thank you, Shelby Oshiro!

2012 pancake breakfast wrap-up – thank you, everyone!

This year we did 568 breakfasts (373 were takeouts. 2011: 564 breakfasts)

PLEASE DON'T FORGET TO TURN IN YOUR TICKETS & MONIES TO GRANT ITO A.S.A.P., or by March 28th!

Thank you to our members, adult friends/relatives, and Service Leadership Programs (Key Clubbers and Circle Kers) which provided the much needed manpower: ERIC BATALON, WAYNE HIGA (thanks for bringing the chafing dishes), GRANT ITO, SCOTT NAKAWATASE, PAULINE HIROHATA, BRANDY KUNISHIGE, MICHELLE PANTIL, ERNI AU, RICH LUM, SCOTT IWANAGA (thanks for bringing the tables and tents), RON PINEDA, & EUGENE YOUNG. Thank you also, Anna Pineda, Mark Yamada, John McLaughlin, Emily Young; Kaneohe Kiwanians Joshua Chang and Neil Yamamoto; Faculty Advisors Pam Fujinaka, Traci Ann Harada and Ryan Darnall; and FARRINGTON (welcome back!), IOLANI, KAISER (27 strong!), ST. LOUIS, ROOSEVELT, & PUNAHOU KEY CLUBS; & the UH & HPU CIRCLE K CLUBS for your club's turnout! Thank yous are also extended to everyone that provided the entertainment this year – Lei Cooper, UH Circle Ker Shelby Oshiro (dancing hula), and thanks to Kaiser's Shay Chun, former Punahou Key Club President, Daniel Dangaran, and his Yale University a capella group, the Yale Alley Cats!

More kudos and thanks also go out to our many individual 'Friends' of the club, who helped to sell our tickets or gave donations. Names that come to mind include Pearl Harbor Kiwanian Kay Tokunaga and her faithful, supportive contingent including husband Wayne Nakashima, Kelly Zane & family, Chris & Cherie Dang and the Kiwanis Executive Club of Honolulu. Thank you, WAYNE HIGA, for the chafing dishes and coffee supplies! Our apologies if we left out anyone, but we appreciate everyone's support by all means! Ray Lee, we missed you this year – please get better, thank you for your support in this fundraiser!

Thank you, Farrington Key Club, for being the top club ticket sellers this year. We are so happy to have you folks back up and running, and we appreciate you folks showing up, even after getting a little lost on TheBus, and being tasked with potwashing and final kitchen clean up! Through everyone's efforts, we are contributing to our Honolulu Kiwanis Foundation (IRS 501(c)3-approved non-profit charitable foundation) and funding Key Club Convention registration fees for our faculty advisors. HUGS dinners. etc. Mahalos. K-Familv! TOGETHER WE CAN!

F 2012 Kiwanis One Day -- At tonight's General / Board meeting, Grant Ito talked about Sunday, April 22nd (or as a back-up date, Saturday, April 21st) as our tentative date to do some kind of painting project (paint mobile trailers?) at the Honolulu Zoo with the Pearl Harbor Kiwanis K-Family. Tentative time is from 8 am – 2 pm. This project has been approved by the Board.

F Honolulu Kiwanis Foundation Stanley R. Stong Memorial Scholarship

- § E-mail: eeeyoung@clearwire.net) for more information
- § The late Stanley Stong was a former Ford Motor Company financial officer and member of our club.
- § His intentions were to help financially in need Honolulu Kiwanis-sponsored Key clubbers in their application with a vision of this award helping them to get accepted to a post-secondary educational institution in Hawaii.
- § The deadline is June 30, 2012, to allow time for the ultimate decision-making of whether you will be going to a school in Hawaii or going away to the mainland school.
